CONCEPT & CUISINE

MASONS offers high quality, affordable European cuisine.

MASONS pays tribute to the rich history and heritage of Gillman Barracks. Taking styling cues from the area's historic past, the 1935 building has been restored to re-capture the essence of colonial luxury, offering a stylish yet relaxed dining experience. The restaurant has four sections - the main restaurant, the verandah, the bar and the alfresco area.

MASONS aims to be the preferred dining choice for visitors to the art galleries in Gillman Barracks, as well as local people who are looking for a combination of great food and a unique ambience.

In addition to our a la carte and tasting menus, MASONS also offers a great value executive set lunch from $28 for two courses or $38 for three courses. We also offer a casual all day dining selection.

Our newly introduced tasting menu includes some of our house favourites, including, Foie Gras, Fresh Lobster, Roast Duck and grade 4 Wagyu Beef.

MASONS feature bar serves over 45 classic cocktails including some of the very best Martinis in town and has temperature controlled storage for an impressive range of well known and boutique wines from around the world to suit all tastes and budgets.

ABOUT CHEF JACK WOOLNER

Head Chef Jack initially trained in the UK under the guidance of Clive Dixon, one of the youngest ever Michelin Star Chefs. He perfected his skills with British & European cuisine whilst working at the award winning Hinds Head in Bray.

Owned and directed by the famous 3 Michelin starred Chef Heston Blumenthal OBE, this was a great opportunity for Jack to fully develop his culinary skills and unique approach to British cuisine. Heston's quest for excellence in taste and flavour has been a strong influence on Jack's style, which has subsequently developed to harmonise traditional classics with a modern twist.
